Exciting New Exhibit To Open At Mississauga Civic Centre

WHAT - A unique new exhibit is about to be unveiled at the Mississauga Civic Centre's Great Hall on Saturday, September 26th at 3:00 p.m. The exhibit, created by the Polish Canadian Women's Federation, will tell the stories of 60 Canadians of Polish heritage. The "Polish Spirit Exhibit" will highlight the contributions that men and women have made in the fields of politics, science and engineering, the arts and community involvement.

Laurel Broten, MPP for Etobicoke-Lakeshore will be on hand to formally congratulate the organization for the work they've done as a result of receiving an Ontario Trillium Foundation grant.

Over 250 pictures will be on display and people will get an opportunity to learn more about the design of such Toronto landmarks as the CN Tower and Roy Thomson Hall as well as seeing some amazing works of art. The Polish Spirit exhibit features Sir Casimir Gzowski, Senator Stranley Haidasz, Isaac Hellmuth, the founder of Western University, Janusz Zurakowski- aviator, Mark Starowicz- Director, Documentary Programming at CBC TV, Shirley Mask Connolly, Curator of Polish Kashub Heritage Museum in Wilno.
